1. General

1.1. The PEPPOL Authority and the PEPPOL AP Provider, hereinafter individually referred to as "Party" and together referred to as "the Parties", have entered into this agreement ("the Agreement") to specify the legal terms and conditions under which:

- the PEPPOL AP Provider shall provide the required PEPPOL AP services;
- the PEPPOL Authority shall supervise that the services provided by the PEPPOL AP Provider are provided and maintained in a reliable, professional and state of the art manner, in compliance with all applicable laws and all relevant technical specifications, to ensure consistency across the full PEPPOL Transport Infrastructure.

1.2. All Annexes are to be considered an integral part of the Agreement although they may be maintained and changed separately. In case of conflict the specific provisions of the annex takes precedence over the generic text of the agreement provided that it is clearly and unequivocally specified in the Annex which section or sections of the Agreement that have been changed, replaced or supplemented.

1.3. Changes to Annexes 2, 3, 4, 5 (except for clause 2.1 and 2.3.1) and 6 are governed by the PEPPOL Coordinating Authority and subject to the procedures set out in Annex 6 "Change procedures". The PEPPOL Authority will be involved in any process to change the annexes and proposals for revision will be notified to the PEPPOL AP Provider at least 6 months before they enter into force.

1.4. All Annexes are published and maintained on the PEPPOL Web Site (www.peppol.eu). Each reference to any of the listed Annex contained in the Agreement is to be considered as referencing the most recent version of such Annex.

1.5. Each time a new version of an Annex or any document referenced in an Annex is made available, the PEPPOL Authority will notify the PEPPOL AP Provider at the address provided in Annex 1.

2. Scope and purpose of the agreement

- 2.1. The PEPPOL Transport Infrastructure is an interoperable environment, built upon national and/or regional systems and infrastructures, that provides a mean by which PEPPOL Participants are able to exchange business documents between each other, automatically and without manual intervention, thus facilitating an interoperable environment supporting the full cycle of electronic procurement activities.
- 2.2. The purpose of the Agreement is to define the general principles for the operation of the PEPPOL Transport Infrastructure.
- 2.3. The agreement also constitutes the contractual framework for the access and information exchange between the PEPPOL AP and the PEPPOL SML and any PEPPOL SMP.
- 2.4. The Agreement shall not be interpreted as an exclusive cooperation between the Parties. Each Party is free to conduct identical or similar business on its own and/or in cooperation with other parties.
- 2.5. Neither Party may conclude agreements on behalf of the other Party or in any other way represent the other Party on the basis of the Agreement. Neither Party acts as the other Party's subcontractor in the operations referred to in the Agreement.
- 2.6. The Parties' relationship with the PEPPOL Participants is not regulated in the Agreement, except as expressly provided in Section 11 regarding Confidentiality and in Section 6 regarding General Undertakings.

3. Definitions

3.1. For the purpose of the Agreement the terms listed in Annex 2 shall have the meaning as defined in that Annex.

4. Roles and responsibilities of the parties

4.1. The PEPPOL AP Provider must have a valid membership in OpenPEPPOL AISBL.

4.2. The PEPPOL Authority has authority over the implementation and use of the PEPPOL Transport Infrastructure within its domain as defined in Annex 5. To achieve this, the PEPPOL Authority has the responsibility to ensure that all PEPPOL AP services established within its domain complies with the relevant Technical Standards, as defined in Annex 4, and service specifications, as defined in Annex 3. Through this set of minimum criteria consistency across the full infrastructure is ensured.

4.3. The PEPPOL Transport Infrastructure relies on digital certificates for the establishment of trust between communicating parties. The PEPPOL Authority has been delegated, from the PEPPOL Certification Authority the authority to require that digital certificates be issued, suspended and revoked for PEPPOL AP Providers with whom they have a PEPPOL AP Provider Agreement.

4.4. The PEPPOL AP Provider is responsible for providing PEPPOL AP services in accordance with the minimum requirements prescribed by the relevant Technical Standards, as defined in Annex 4, and service specifications, as defined in Annex 3. This includes a mandatory requirement to provide send and/or receive capabilities for PEPPOL BIS relevant to the services they offer to customers, as well as ensuring that the PEPPOL Participants they service have send and/or receive capabilities for the relevant PEPPOL BIS. Furthermore the PEPPOL AP services shall comply with any additional requirements set forth in annex 5.

4.5. The PEPPOL AP Provider is also responsible for submitting correct and updated metadata regarding its Access Point to the relevant PEPPOL SMP.

4.6. The PEPPOL AP Provider shall provide support for the PEPPOL Business Documents required by the PEPPOL Participants they services according to the registrations for these PEPPOL Participants in the PEPPOL SMP.

5. Domain Specific Requirements

5.1. The PEPPOL Authority may enforce additional restrictions and criteria, beyond those enforced by the PEPPOL Coordinating Authority in the PEPPOL Transport Infrastructure Agreement, on PEPPOL AP Providers and PEPPOL SMP Providers they contract with. Such additional restrictions and criteria shall be documented in annex 5 and be made publicly available in English language. The additional restrictions and criteria should not hamper the interoperability with PEPPOL Participants using other PEPPOL AP Providers and PEPPOL SMP Providers.

5.2. The PEPPOL Authority cannot enforce or supervise its additional restrictions and criteria on PEPPOL AP Providers and PEPPOL SMP Providers contracting with other PEPPOL Authorities.

5.3. A PEPPOL Authority that has additional restrictions and criteria may offer PEPPOL AP Providers and PEPPOL SMP Providers the possibility to sign only the applicable annex 5 if they have signed a PEPPOL SMP Provider Agreements and PEPPOL AP Provider Agreements with another PEPPOL Authority. By signing annex 5 the PEPPOL AP Providers and/or PEPPOL SMP Provider accepts that the stated additional restrictions and criteria will apply to their services offered within the applicable domain.

5.4. A PEPPOL Authority may run their own accreditation schemes to ensure conformance to their additional restrictions and criteria.

6. General Undertakings

6.1. In addition to each Party's responsibilities in this Section 6 or otherwise in the Agreement the core responsibilities of the Parties is to provide the services relevant to their role in the PEPPOL Transport Infrastructure as defined through Annex 3, Annex 4, Annex 5 and Annex 6.

6.2. As far as it is possible without violating confidentiality commitments to third parties or data protection laws or regulations, the Parties shall make available to each other and to other PEPPOL Participants relevant information held by the Party and which is needed by others for maintaining the services.

6.3. Each Party shall ensure that its services is provided and maintained in a reliable, professional and state of the art manner.

6.4. The PEPPOL AP Provider shall protect its own data systems against illicit use, malicious code, viruses, computer intrusions, infringements and illegal tampering of data and other comparable actions by third parties. The PEPPOL AP Provider agrees to use commercially reasonable efforts to avoid the transmission of any viruses, time bombs, worms or similar items or any computer programming routines that may interfere with other Party's computer systems.

6.5. The Parties shall notify each other and implicated PEPPOL Participants without delay if they observe disturbances or errors within their domain of responsibility, which may endanger the fulfilling of agreed tasks.

- 6.6. If any of the Parties regardless of circumstances is unable to fulfil its obligations according to the Agreement, the Party should without delay inform the other Party.
- 6.7. Each Party shall in Annex 1 designate contact persons for the exchange of information and for taking care of other matters related to the Agreement. Any change in contact points must be provided in writing.
- 6.8. The PEPPOL AP Provider shall ensure that it has sufficient resources for the necessary development of the services they provide and for the maintenance of its own data systems.
- 6.9. By mean of separate agreements, the PEPPOL AP Provider ensures that it is entitled to receive and transfer Business Documents on behalf of or for the benefit of the PEPPOL Participants that it services.
- 6.10. The PEPPOL AP Provider shall enclose in each and every agreement between itself and of the PEPPOL Participants that it services, a complete reference to this Agreement and to the PEPPOL Authority, including the full address of the Contact Point.
- 6.11. The PEPPOL AP Provider shall process PEPPOL Business Documents and ensure that all related tasks are accomplished in accordance with the Agreement, including its Annexes, and the agreements it has made with the PEPPOL Participants that it services.

10. Data Ownership

10.1. The content of PEPPOL Business Documents and their associated metadata which is stored by the PEPPOL AP Provider is owned by the PEPPOL Participant.

10.2. The PEPPOL AP Provider is not allowed to collect or distribute information about PEPPOL Business Documents and their associated metadata other than to the extent required for operation of the infrastructure.

11. Confidentiality

- 11.1. The parties undertake to preserve confidentiality of any data, documents or other material that they have received from the other Party or otherwise in relation to the execution of their responsibilities and services under this Agreement and which are identified as confidential in relation to the execution of their responsibilities and Services. The content of PEPPOL Business Documents is always considered as confidential.
- 11.2. The Parties may, however, disclose information related to the existence of service contracts within their domain of responsibility.
- 11.3. If it is necessary for a Party to give its employees or advisors information that is subject to confidentiality, the information may not be disclosed to other persons than those for whom it is necessary to receive such information and who are bound by a confidentiality undertaking either by agreement or by law.
- 11.4. Should a Party, or anyone for whom a Party is responsible, such as employees, consultants and subcontractors, be in breach of any of the clauses above regarding confidentiality, the other Party is entitled to damages covering its loss due to the other Party's breach of confidentiality.
- 11.5. The obligation of confidentiality does not, however, apply to material and information (a) which is generally available or otherwise public, or (b) which the Party has received from a third party without an obligation of confidentiality, or (c) which was in the possession of the recipient Party without an obligation of confidentiality applying to it before receiving it from the other Party, or (d) which a Party has independently developed without using material or information received by him from the other Party or (e) to the extent the release of such material or information is required under a governmental subpoena or similar governmental demand.

11.6. The Parties shall protect the personal data they receive, collect and process according to the provisions set in the Directive 95/46, Directive 2002/58 and their revised forms.

11.7. The obligation of confidentiality shall survive termination of the Agreement.

12. Retention of Data

12.1. Data stored by the PEPPOL AP shall be retained for as long as the data is necessary in order to carry out the performance of its obligations in accordance with this Agreement or is needed for the offering of or follow-up on services by the implicated users (PEPPOL SML, PEPPOL SMP or PEPPOL Participant). After that the data shall be deleted unless renewed or confirmed by the data subject.

12.2. The PEPPOL AP Provider shall not collect or save any of its customer's data, information, business documents or its content for any other purpose than what is necessary in order to carry out the performance of its obligations in accordance with this Agreement. If the use of any of such information is needed to provide further services to the customer (e.g. transformation, archiving), the PEPPOL AP Provider shall specifically inform about this in the agreement between itself and the PEPPOL Participants that it services.

Back to index

13. Logging

13.1. The PEPPOL AP Provider shall log all business documents handled by the PEPPOL AP. Such log shall be kept for at least 3 months or for the period prescribed by law.

13.2. The PEPPOL AP Provider shall on request from the implicated users (PEPPOL SML, PEPPOL SMP, other PEPPOL APs and/or PEPPOL Participant) or from the PEPPOL Authority reveal or give access to relevant data from the logs provided that the data is not subject to a duty of confidentiality in which case the prior written consent of the data subject should be retrieved.

14. Penalties, Suspension and Revocation of Services

14.1. The PEPPOL Authority may impose a penalty upon the PEPPOL AP Provider if the PEPPOL AP Provider does not fulfil its responsibilities and obligations as defined in this Agreement or in any of its Annexes – or if indications of fraud, spam or other misconduct are observed from the PEPPOL AP Provider.

14.2. If the misconduct defined in 14.1 continues over time, the PEPPOL Authority may suspend the PEPPOL AP Provider for up to 30 days. In this case the PEPPOL Authority shall:

- inform the PEPPOL AP Provider that he may be suspended by sending a Warning Note,
- give the PEPPOL AP Provider a possibility to bring its conduct in accordance with the conditions specified in the Warning Note received and to all responsibilities and obligations as defined in this Agreement or in any of its Annexes,
- specify, in the Warning Note, the amount of time given to the PEPPOL AP Provider to comply with the requirements of the notice and the Agreement.

14.3. The PEPPOL Authority may extend the suspension, depending on conditions set up by the PEPPOL Authority or ultimately exclude the PEPPOL AP Provider from the PEPPOL Transport Infrastructure by revoking their PEPPOL Certificate.

14.4. During suspension or after revocation the PEPPOL Certificate cannot be used in transactions, and the PEPPOL AP Provider thus cannot send or receive messages to/from other PEPPOL APs or engage in PEPPOL SMP transactions.

14.5. The PEPPOL Authority shall notify other relevant parties immediately and/or publish the information.

Back to index

15. Termination of Services

15.1. Should the PEPPOL AP Provider wish to terminate its service, it must notify the PEPPOL Authority at least six months before services are terminated. Such notice shall also be made available to all relevant PEPPOL Participants and PEPPOL SMP.

15.2. Further, all registrations in PEPPOL SMPs referencing the PEPPOL AP must be removed before the service is terminated, and as a last step, the PEPPOL Certificate must be revoked.

16. Liability

16.1. Each Party is liable for the acts, failures or omissions of its employees, consultants and subcontractors, including any violation of the terms of this Agreement by such employees, consultants or subcontractors to the same extent as if said acts, failures or omissions was undertaken by the Party itself.

16.2. If a Party requires another Party to use the services of a particular intermediary to perform a service, the Party who required such use shall indemnify the other Party with regard to the costs of such intermediary and for any damage arising directly from that intermediary's acts, failures or omissions in the provision of said services.

16.3. A Party shall not be liable for any indirect or consequential damage, such as loss of income or unobtained profit, caused to the other Party. Damages that a Party is liable to pay paid to third parties due to breach of confidentiality under this Agreement by the other Party shall not be considered indirect damages.

16.4. Save for section 15.5 below, the liability of the Parties for damages arising from or in relation to this Agreement is limited to € 10.000,00 per each damaging event.

16.5. The exclusions and limitations of liability stated above shall not apply in the case of damage caused by a wilful act or gross negligence.

Back to index

17. Force Majeure

17.1. Neither Party shall be in breach of this Agreement nor liable for delay in performing, or failure to perform, any of its obligations under this Agreement if such delay or failure results from unforeseen circumstances or events or causes beyond that Party's control, including but not limited to, war, riot, embargoes, acts of civil or military authorities, fire, floods, accidents, strikes, or shortages of energy, labour or materials, and in the event of any such circumstances, the defaulting Party shall forthwith notify the other in writing and the time for performance shall be extended by a period equivalent to the period during which performance of the obligation has been delayed or failed to be performed, provided that if the period of delay or non-performance continues for three (3) months, the party not affected may terminate this agreement by giving 14 days written notice to other party.

Back to index

18. Assignments and Amendments

18.1. Any amendments to this Agreement shall be in writing and shall have no effect unless signed by the duly authorised representatives of the Parties.

18.2. Unless expressly stated elsewhere in the Agreement the PEPPOL AP Provider is not entitled to transfer the Agreement or the rights, liabilities or obligations under the Agreement without a prior, written consent from the PEPPOL Authority.

Back to index

19. Terms and Termination of the Agreement

19.1. The Agreement shall enter into force on the Effective Date as set out in Section 21 provided that it has been signed by duly authorised representative of both parties.

19.2. The Agreement is valid until 30 June 2022 at midnight CET.

19.3. Either party may terminate the Agreement in whole or in part immediately by written notice in case the other party: (a) commits a material breach to the provisions of the Agreement, which is not remedied within sixty (60) days from written notice thereof; (b) is declared bankrupt, seeks a composition of creditors, suspends payments or in any other way is deemed to be insolvent; (c) materially fails to comply with the confidentiality or security requirements of the Agreement, or if a Party, or any member of it or its sub-contractors' personnel, conducts business or otherwise by act or omission in the reasonable opinion of the other Party acts in wilful or criminal misconduct, which may reflect negatively on the latter Party.

19.4. The Parties are obliged to inform third parties that are affected by the termination of the Agreement of the giving of notice. If notice is given on the Agreement, the Parties undertake to negotiate on the procedures that pertain to the ending of the cooperation according to the Agreement in order to avoid any unnecessary disturbances in the customer relationships of the Parties.

20. Governing Law

- 20.1. Without prejudice to any mandatory national law which may apply to the Parties, the Agreement is governed by the law of the country in which the PEPPOL Authority has its head office.
- 20.2. Should any provision of this Agreement become invalid, illegal or unenforceable, it shall not affect the validity of the remaining provisions of this agreement. In such case, the Parties concerned shall be entitled to request that a valid and practicable provision be negotiated which fulfils the purpose of the original provision.

Back to index

21. Dispute Resolution

- 21.1. Any dispute arising out of or in connection with the Agreement shall be:
- (1) resolved amicably by negotiations between the Parties, or if the Parties has not reached agreement within 45 days following notice from one Party to the other regarding the dispute,
 - (2) escalated to the PEPPOL Coordinating Authority, in which case both Parties must agree on whether the decision from the PEPPOL Coordinating Authority, or from one or more technical experts appointed by the PEPPOL Coordinating Authority, shall be considered binding or only advisory (as a basis for further negotiations), or
 - (3) when none of the other options provides a satisfactory solution within 90 days following notice from one Party to the other regarding the dispute, the dispute may be referred to the courts of the country in which the PEPPOL Authority has its head office. Said court shall then have sole jurisdiction.
- 21.2. Any expenses incurred by the PEPPOL Coordinating Authority in the process of resolving the dispute shall be covered by the Parties.
